BIOGRAPHIES

Maureen Coyne (Mother, etc) has performed with AE as Miss Tessman in Hedda Gabbler and Mom in Sam Shepard's True West. Other recent roles are an Irish cook in The Women and an Italian servant in Enchanted April, both at the Douglas Morrisson Theatre in Hayward., and Elizabeth, a nervous writer, in The Art of Dining at the Dragon Theatre in Palo Alto.

Anthony Croson (He, etc) is a recent graduate of the UC Berkeley. While a student, he was an active member of the UC Theater Dance and Performance Studies Department. He is very excited to be apart of AE and A Dream Play. He would like to thank David Stein for his vision and patience, his fellow actors and crew who have made this play come to life, and his family who instilled in him a deep love and a profound respect for the creative arts.

Jose Garcia (Prompter, etc) was recently seen in Actors Ensemble's production of Lysistrata as a Geezer and Spartan Envoy. And was an assistant stage manager in AE's production of True West. Last summer he appeared as an Officer and Jailer in the Comedy of Errors at Orinda Starlight Theatre.

Christianna Gunn (Stage Manager) is a film and theater director. This summer she will be directing David Mamet's

Sexual Perversity in Chicago produced in association with Solano Repertory Company. She would like to thank her boyfriend for his constant, never-ending support and love.

Michael Kelly (Glazier) is doing his first show with the Actor's Ensemble. A graduate of the SFSU Theatre program, Michael has thoroughly enjoyed this, his first charge into the Bay Area theatre community at large. Michael thanks David and the cast for the opportunity to get to know them.

Kat Kneisel (She, etc) studies theater at Sarah Lawrence College and The British American Drama Academy in London. After a brief stint in NY, she then moved to New Haven, CT to work with Open End theatre company. Her favorite roles have been a witch in Macbeth and Janet in Rocky Horror Picture Show. She thanks everyone.

Sarah Meyeroff (Indra's Daughter) is honored to be playing in the park with such a talented and dynamic group of people. She recently had her Bay Area debut in Precarious Theatre's Chemical Imbalance at the Exit Theater. Her previous credits include work at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minnesota, and Renaissance Theaterworks, Next Act Theater, and First Stage Theater in Milwaukee, WI. Sarah is grateful for the constant support from friends and family at the realization, thanks to Strindberg, that it isn't easy being human.

Steven Morales (Poet) is very excited to appear in his first production with AE and would like to thank David and the cast for the good times.

Andrew Nolan (Officer) is a graduate of Solano College's Actor Training Program. Andrew was last seen in SCT's The Underpants (Versati). Other credits include 365 Plays / 365 Days and the ATP's Carthaginians (Paul). He would like to thank his girlfriend Christianna, his instructors, and family for their love and support.
